

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

I am very concerned that the FCC is no longer looking out for the interest of the citizens and consumers, but simply the interests of huge companies to make a profit from the public airwaves. I hope you can make the right decision and restore trust in the FCC.
